Passenger Ship Moorage Rental Rates - 2012

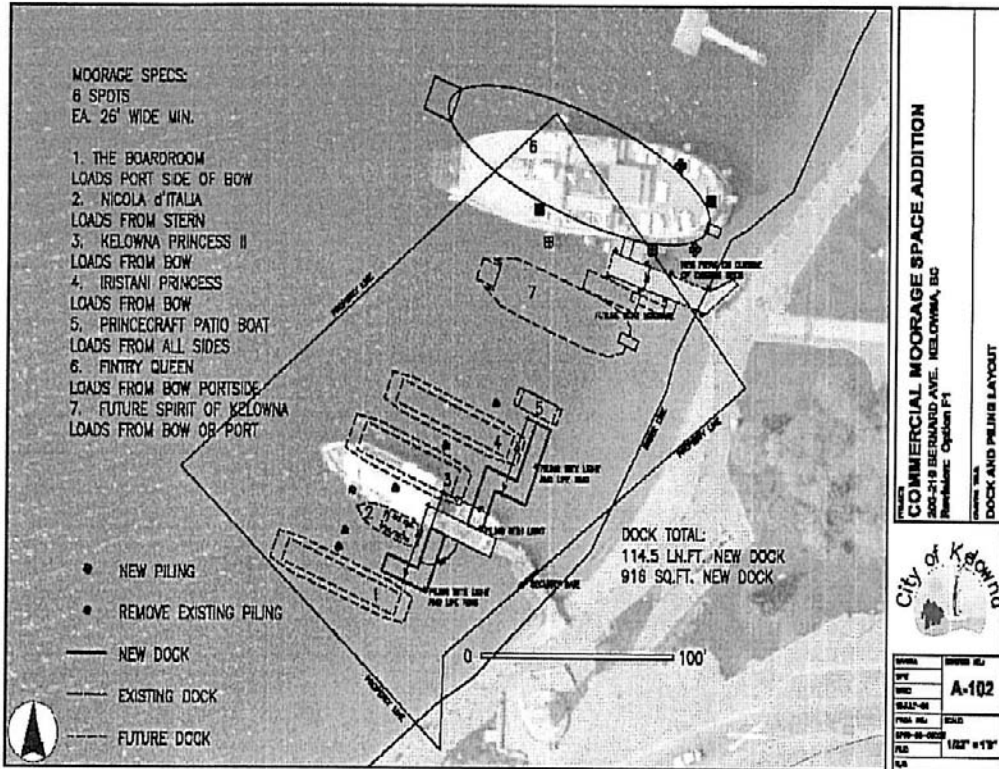

Base Rate

Moorage Space		Annual Rent
Sails Dock
1 (serviced berth)		Berth x Length x $8.25 + 5%
2 (serviced berth)		Berth x Length x $8.25
3 (serviced berth)		Berth x Length x $8.25 + 5%
4 (serviced berth)		Berth x Length x $8.25 + 5%
5 (un-serviced berth)		Berth x Length x $8.25

Notes:

- refer to attached sketch AK-102 for berth numbering
- rental agreements would be conditional upon a $5,000 damage deposit
- maintenance is included in the base rate
- all spaces would be charged a 5% lease administration fee
- all spaces would be charged for utilities as an additional charge:
 - un-metered utilities (e.g. water and garbage) would be apportioned equally among occupied spaces
 - metered utilities (e.g. electricity)
- the rate structure has a multiplier that recognizes the value of proximity to the dock access ramp(s) (Berth 3) and the visual exposure to the shoreline promenade (Berth 1 and 4)
- spaces allocations would be offered to qualified operators according to the following sequence:
 1. Consensus of all parties, including due consideration for safety as it relates to technical specifications of qualified passenger ships, AND FAILING THIS;
 2. The determination of the City's Property Manager in collaboration with Transport Canada in consideration of the stated priorities of qualified operators; OR
 3. Where all things are equal, a random draw.
- where the number of qualified passenger ships exceeds the available spaces, the opportunity to rent a space would be based on a request for proposal and awarded to the highest bidders, referring to the Base Rate Chart above as the "reserve bid".
